POLITICAL

The Common Sense View.

Of course, every straight Republican will vote next November for the election of the Republican candidate for Congress in his district, but how about the Independent and the former Democrat who have been supporting the Republicans in Congressional elections since their experience of hard times under Democratic rule? Will they continue their course of political wisdom and material common sense, or will they suffer themselves in a momentary aberration of mind to be led astray by Democratic platitudes? There are enough of them to make the question worth the asking, and worth considering, for without the votes of these far-seeing men who put the welfare of their common country above mere partisan politics, the great Republican majority of 112 in the present National House of Representatives could never have been attained.

The existence of that majority shows that men may be Democrats and Independents upon local questions, but that when it comes to great problems, the solving of which spells prosperity or disaster to the nation as a whole, they support the party which stands for the policies that appeal to their common sense as being best for the material welfare of all the people of the Republic. The fact that six successive Republican Houses have been elected since the close of the Democratic Congress that died in 1895, is indisputable evidence that an overwhelming majority of the voters have believed the policies of the Republican party best fitted to meet the wants of the whole nation.

Well, what's the use of a change? Has anything happened to upset that belief or warrant upsetting it? Not at all; on the contrary, the record of the Congress in the last session affords every reason for further endorsement of Republican policies by the people and the election of a Republican House in the Sixtieth Congress as a practical indication of that approval.

The common sense view of the political situation by the Democratic or Independent voter, as well as well as by the straight Republican, would seem to be that the part of wisdom would be the election of a Republican House of Representatives in order that existing policies, with which no fault is found, can be continued and expanded. The Democrat and the Independent are prospering along with the Republican, as a result of the application of those policies, as they well know, so why should they kick the fat into the fire just because some Democratic candidate makes an appeal for "party regularity" to the Democrat, and for a change of administration to the Independent who is supposed to be favorable to frequent changes?

What would a change accomplish in this instance? One result, and one only; it would tie up the next Congress by making it half Democratic and half Republican, so that neither party could do anything, and the work of constructive legislation would come to a complete standstill. In the words of Speaker Cannon, "Congress would simply mark time." That is not what the country wants, and is not what the country has been having under President Roosevelt's administration. But it is what the country will most assuredly get if the voters lose their heads, abandon their common sense and elect a Democratic National House of Representatives next November.—Exchange.

Tammany, which means to New York City Democracy, has cast its vote for William Randolph Hearst.

The Democracy of California, Hearst's home State, has voted against him, and on top of its vote has piled high the denunciation of Hearst and all that Hearst and his multiplex newspaper press combination represents and stands for. From Maine to California, from north to south, the Democracy is divided into two discordant, belligerent camps and forces led and captained respectively by two rival leaders, William Jennings Bryan and William Randolph Hearst. California has declared for Bryan and New York for Hearst. Outside of New York, which is dominated by Tammany, the Democratic party as at present constituted, controlled and led, is for Bryan by an overwhelming majority. While the dominance of the Bryan wing of the party is unquestionable and apparently invincible within the party councils, it is a very serious question whether the dominance can carry with it, the voting strength of the heterogeneous elements which make up the solid phalanxes of those who are counted upon to vote and support Democratic policies and candidates.

Since anti-bellum days the Democracy has been the party of opposition for the most part in and with the minority, and dependent for a remote chance of success upon the combined votes and support, first, of all the large following of those who vote the Democratic ticket mechanically from habit and on no other or better ground than that "Dad was a Democrat", and second, those who under a thousand different names make up the conglomeration of the disappointed, dissatisfied and discontented of the world's varied population. Among the latter class Hearst leads. Of this latter class few are Republican in politics.

The opposition to Republican policies and principles is hopelessly divided. With a country prosperous beyond the dreams of the most optimistic, under Republican control there is doubt of continued Republican control.

The fight at the Fall elections will be for the control of the lower house of Congress. Republican supremacy is assured in the Executive Department and in the Senate for two years regardless of the result at the polls next November. Democratic success this year can result only in Democratic control of the lower house, and consequently in a conflict for the two succeeding years between the two houses of Congress and between the Executive and the lower house. In short Democratic success in November simply means partial paralysis of the functions of Government. A vote for Democratic success in the coming Congressional contest is a vote for partial paralysis of your government. Are you in favor of paralysis?

Schmitz and Ruef failed to make good at the State Convention of the United Labor Party.

The defeat of the two big bosses was disappointing to other big bosses, quite as much as to the two to whom the kick was directly administered.

San Mateo county people feel extremely gratified over Judge Henshaw's nomination to the State Supreme court, Henshaw being a San Mateo county man.—Burlingame Advance.

Republican County Convention Called

The Republican county committee met in Redwood City on Tuesday last and decided to hold the county convention in San Mateo on Saturday, Sept. 29. The primary election will take place on Saturday, the 22d. The convention will be composed of 84 delegates, the representation being one delegate for every 25 votes cast for Wm. S. Wood for presidential elector. This will give the Fourth township a representation of 10 delegates.

For the Assembly.

R. H. JURY
[Incumbent]

Respectfully announces himself a candidate for Member of the Assembly, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention.

For Sheriff.

Frank T. Bartlett, of San Mateo, respectfully announces himself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. Mr. Bartlett has a host of friends and, if nominated, will lend strength to the Republican County ticket.

For Supervisor.

Harry Hatch has announced his candidacy for the office of Supervisor in and for the 2nd Township of San Mateo County, as an Independent candidate. Inasmuch as Harry has in the past been a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, he should draw votes from the regular Democratic nominee and his candidacy should help Supervisor Coleman who will in all probability be the Republican nominee.

New Planing Mill.

South San Francisco is to have another factory added to her growing list now in operation. Mr. Swift of Oakland is here and has secured a site in block 123 where he is erecting a first class planing mill. When completed it will add greatly to the resources of our town and help to supply the demands of this growing place.

South City Mutual Building and Loan Association.

The regular meeting of the South City Mutual Building and Loan Association was held in the Metropolitan building on Tuesday evening. President R. Patchell tendered his resignation as President and as a Director of the Association. The resignation of Mr. Patchell was accepted by the assembled Directors with unanimous expressions of regret. Mr. Andrew Hynding was elected a Director and Mr. E. E. Cunningham was elected President to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Patchell.

Growth of Our Water Front.

A trip from this place to San Francisco, along the new Bay Shore railroad, can give one a slight idea of what this waterfront will be in a few years. In several places already large tracts of the bay have been filled across, then a large dredger and sand pump is started and within a few weeks this is all filled in, making ground which will be valuable for factory sites in the near future. In several places tracts of several acres— from 10 to 100—have been filled in in this way. Already piers are being pushed out for the handling of hay and other products. Within a few years the bay front from here to San Francisco will be a busy place for the handling of freight of different kinds.

Will Build New Road.

The Central California Company, the president of which is E. E. Calvin, of the Southern Pacific, has determined to build its road from Niles to Dumbarton Point and thence to Redwood City and San Mateo, instead of from Newark as was originally intended. The road will be thirty miles in length.

Amended articles of incorporation, setting forth the new route, were filed in the office of the county clerk of San Francisco yesterday. N. T. Smith, William Hood, J. E. Foulds, E. E. Calvin and Frank Shay are the directors.—Democrat.

The above refers to the Dumbarton road over which so much controversy is being had. This road, when completed, will be one of the great boons for this peninsula and will add much to realty values here. We are all glad to see this project pushed through.

Fraternal Orders.

I. O. R. M.

The spirit of Fraternity seems to be hovering over South City. Tippecanoe Tribe, No. 111, conferred the Warriors and Chiefs Degree on four palefaces at its last Tribal meeting and four more are to be adopted at its next session.

Wahnita Council, Degree of Pocahontas, are drilling faithfully for the next adoption, when five candidates will be presented. The Masquerade Ball to be given by the Council on October 6 will be a grand affair. Some twenty prizes are to be competed for, and a good time is assured.

U. A. O. D.

On Monday, the 24th inst., a grand social will be given by officers and members of Golden Eagle Grove, 173, in honor of the Grand Officers who will pay an official visit on that date; visiting members from Redwood, San Mateo, Colma and San Francisco are expected to be present. Brother W. J. Savage, of Colma, the District Deputy, will head the delegation from Colma.

F. O. E.

South City "Aerie" No. 1473 held an enthusiastic meeting Wednesday, the 19th inst. Reports of the several committees showed that the condition of the "Aerie" was satisfactory. The Grand Ball to be given on the 29th inst. was referred to and complete arrangements reported. A special car will leave 5th and Market streets, San Francisco, also one from San Mateo at the hour of 8 p. m. on that evening. Invitations have been sent to all the local "Aeries" and it is predicted that South City never had within its precincts a crowd equal to that which will be present at that function. It may be in order to state that on Wednesday next the Drill Team of "Aerie" No. 61, of San Francisco, have kindly consented to perform the degree work on forty accepted candidates who will on that occasion join the Local Aerie, making this branch of the Fraternal Order of Eagles the largest Fraternal Order in South City.

JUNIOR GUILD.

The Junior Guild, which was organized last February for the purpose of teaching young girls plain sewing, etc., has so far advanced in its work that the teacher will now take up basket work in Raffle grass. The class will be taught without extra charge but others coming in for that only will be charged 25 cents a lesson. The proceeds go into the fund as the work of the teacher is given gratis. The officers at present are Gertrude Karbe, secretary, and Florence Robinson, treasurer. The Guild meets every Saturday from 2 to 4 at Guild Hall.

Popular Redwood City Medico Enters Into the Political Arena.

[From the Menlo Park Progress.]

Dr. A. F. Maine, of Redwood City, has entered the political arena and seeks the nomination to the office of Coroner and Public Administrator of San Mateo county at the hands of the Republican party.

His candidacy is looked upon favorably by the leaders of the party throughout the county, and his many friends both in the social and medical world have pledged him their support and votes.

Dr. Maine is a young physician of high attainments and is considered a leader in his profession. He is a graduate of the New York High School and obtained his medical education and degree at the University of Louisville, Kentucky. After graduation he took a post-graduate course for one year at the New York Polyclinic, and has resided in Redwood City for the past four years. A very popular citizen in Redwood City, Dr. Maine is also a member of the Redmen, Eagles and other fraternal organizations. He is a staunch Republican and he has always given the party his money, time and talents.

The people of San Mateo county will do well to support Dr. Maine in his aspirations, for if he is elected he will give the office of Coroner and Public Administrator his full time and attention and run it on up-to-date and modern lines.

GRAND DUKES PANIC-STRICKEN BY SUDDEN DEATH OF TREPPOFF.

Fear of Assassination Is Everywhere; New Attempts of Terrorists, Who Claim They Killed Trepoff.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 18.—The Grand Dukes are in a panic. The death of General Trepoff, which is now generally believed to have been due to poison, has put the entire royal family in such a state of alarm that the members of it are literally falling over each other getting out of this city. The Grand Dukes left at midnight last night for the west and more are preparing to go. Most of them will settle down in Paris for a time at least.

Nor is the panic confined by any means to the royal family. Dozens of the reactionary clique in the palace at Peteroff are packing up for trips abroad. They are evidently prepared for a long exile, as they are putting their estates in the hands of permanent agents and are sending their valuables ahead of them.

The feeling of terror was added to when revolutionists tried in Warsaw to assassinate General Dorszewski, president of the courtmartial board. There was but one shot fired, but the bullet struck the general in the thigh. His wound is serious but not necessarily fatal. The would-be assassin escaped.

Trepoff was recognized as the strong man of Russia and even his enemies respected his courage and iron will. Now that he is gone there seems to be no one in the empire to fill his place. There is a consequent feeling of helplessness on the part of the court clique.

The Terrorists are declaring that they will be ready in a few days to start a new series of assassinations and that some of the most prominent men of the empire will be among the first victims. They are boasting, too, of the way in which Trepoff was disposed of. They ridicule the statement of the attending physicians that the General died a natural death.

London, Sept. 18.—On receipt of a telegram to the effect that 200 Jews arrested at haphazard during the recent massacre at Siedlee are being tried by field courtmartial, their judges being the same officers who participated in the disorders and therefore likely to condemn them in order to justify the massacre. The committee of British Jews today issued a strong appeal to civilized nations "to prevent such a crime against civilization."

MISTAKEN FOR A WILDCAT.

Engineer and Fireman Stop Train to Hunt and the Latter Is Hurt.

Ukiah, Cal., Sept. 18.—Joe Lilly, a locomotive engineer of the Casper Lumber Company's logging road, is an invalid in the hospital as a result of being taken for a wildcat by his fireman, Frank Cargie. They were coming in with a long train of logs when Lilly spied a large wildcat in the brush near the track. Lilly grabbed a rifle and Cargie a shotgun. They stopped the train and went on a hunt for the cat. Cargie saw something in the brush and not knowing the whereabouts of his partner sent both barrels of buckshot at the supposed wildcat. He heard a cry and running to the spot found Lilly badly wounded.

Hearst Nominated for Governor.

New York, Sept. 13.—William Randolph Hearst and a full State ticket were placed in nomination by the convention of the Independence League at Carnegie Hall last night. Mr. Hearst and his associates on the ticket were nominated by acclamation.

Seattle Defeats City Ownership.

Seattle, Sept. 13.—Municipal ownership met a temporary defeat yesterday in Seattle. Out of a total registration of about 24,000 votes less than 13,000 were polled. The issue failed to receive a majority of the votes cast by about 1,000.

Discovers a New River.

Marseilles, Sept. 18.—The Duke of Abruzzi, who has arrived here, has just made an announcement that one of the most important scientific results achieved in his latest explorations in the interior of Africa was the discovery of a river never before described in any geography. He marked its course and measured its volume and flow.

TO MANUFACTURERS

The earthquake did but little damage to South San Francisco. The industries located here, the Western Meat Company, the Wool Pullery, the Butler Brick Company, the Pacific Jupiter Steel Company, the Steiger Pottery Works, the W. P. Fuller White Lead Works, and other enterprises, are all in full operation today. Not one of them having suffered any serious impairment by reason of the earthquake.

The South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company planned South San Francisco as a manufacturing suburb to San Francisco. With that object in view they originally purchased 3,500 acres of land in San Mateo County on the bay front five miles south of the City of San Francisco, and have developed their property so that today they possess perfected nearly every feature desired by manufacturers.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO

Is a railroad terminal; is on the main line of the Southern Pacific Railroad and accessible to all railroads; has deep water communication; owns and operates for its industries, a railroad connecting with the Southern Pacific and the water front; has electric street car service from factory to town and direct to San Francisco; has an Electric Light and Power Company; owns an independent water works, and has an abundance of fresh water for factory and house; has wharves and docks; a perfect sewerage system; a bank; a town hall; and a population of 3,000 people; an extensive and fine residence district, where workingmen may secure land at reasonable prices, and on favorable terms, as homes for themselves and their families.

❧ FACTORY SITES ❧

Can be obtained from the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company on most reasonable terms.

The American Smelting and Refining Company recently purchased from this Company 200 acres of land and are on the ground today arranging for the immediate construction of a plant costing upwards of $5,000,000. This means a vast increase in population, and a great augmentation for the benefit of all industries of every detail pertaining to rail and water communication.
